Dr. CeCe Rubalcava, Th.D.

“I am excited to join the KCM team as their new Christian counselor. With many people suffering from emotionally-based problems such as depression, anxiety, and low self-esteem, it is a blessing to be able to offer Christ-centered counseling for those seeking a structured and Biblical approach to therapy.” stated CeCe. She further added, “Unaddressed or suppressed emotional pain will eventually manifest itself in the person’s life in the form of guilt, shame, relationship problems, anger, addictions, physical ailments, etc. It is my desire to help people realize the insidious effect unresolved emotional pain can have in a one’s life, and guide them into freedom and deliverance through Christ.”
